

JVC Professional at Telecoms 09

JVC Professional Europe will display a selection of security products at this year's Telecoms 09 event.

Held at London's Olympia, Telecoms 09 attracts key customers from across the country and specialises in informational seminars and exhibitions which focus on the development of the security industry.

JVC will exhibit a variety of CCTV solutions at the show which is held between the 23rd and 24th September.
